SUMMER HEALTH EVENT

Community Pharmacy Thames Valley

pharmacy ACADEMY

You are invited to join CPTV LPC for a FREE day of clinical learning and professional development.

As we head into the summer season, community pharmacies become a first point of contact for allergies, insect bites, travel health queries, and seasonal self-care. This event brings together experts and educators to help you prepare. Expect a full day of clinically relevant sessions, practical skills training, and sponsored updates–all designed to support high-quality patient care throughout the summer months.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Hands-on inhaler technique training
- Seasonal health insights for summer
- Expanding travel health services
- Managing infected insect bites in practice
- Lyme disease workshop, and much more..

You are welcome to join us for the full day or half day - Check the agenda and select the registration option below that works best for you.
